

WORLD AIDS DAY 2005

PRESS RELEASE #1 No Embargo (October)

Wise up. Wear it. Where's yours?

Welcome to World AIDS Day - the international day of action on HIV and AIDS which takes place every year on 1 December.

This year in the UK, World AIDS Day is about wearing the Red Ribbon, as a sign of support for people living with HIV and a symbol of hope for the future.

World AIDS Day is about people getting the facts about HIV and AIDS It's a day for people to get involved and there are many ways in which you can do so. Check out the Fife Men Project website www.fifemen.co.uk for a list of events and how you can get involved.

No matter how you decide to mark the day, you can help create a more AIDS Aware society in which everyone takes action, so please make sure you show off your Red Ribbon on 1 December!

FACT:

This year has seen the biggest increase of people diagnosed with HIV

FACT:

The major increase has been in heterosexual transmission of HIV

FACT:

By wearing your red ribbon and being informed about HIV you are less likely to risk getting the infection
